Statement by the Spokesperson on the attack in the Sarona complex in Tel Aviv

Wednesday night's terror attack in the Sarona complex in Tel Aviv exposed scores of innocent civilians and families to indiscriminate fire. Four people were killed and more seriously injured. Our thoughts are with the families of the dead and injured.

Those responsible for these murders must be brought to justice. Those who praise this attack must be condemned.