PM Hamdallah Briefs Norwegian Envoy About Israeli Violations

Ramallah -Today, Prime Minister Rami Hamdallah met with Norwegian Envoy for the Middle East Peace Process Tor Wennesland to discuss the recent developments of the stalled peace talks.

"We are looking for a political horizon to reach a peaceful and just settlement to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict; not just an economical solution. Any future talks should lead to the creation of an independent Palestinian state, with East Jerusalem as its capital," the Prime Minister said.

PM Hamdallah briefed the Norwegian Envoy about the recent Israeli incursions into Area A which violate all signed agreements, including the Oslo Accords. Hamdallah and Wennesland also discussed recent efforts to revive the peace process, including the "French Peace Initiative".
