Ceremony for the renovation of the ancient Turkish Bath now serving as visitor center in the old city of Hebron

The Consul General of Italy, Fabio Sokolowicz, took part on February 22, together with the Minister of Tourism and Antiquities, Rula Maayah, and the Minister of Local Government, Hussein al Araj, in the closing ceremony for the completion of the renovation of the ancient Turkish Baths in the Old Souq of Hebron, now serving as the visitors center for the city.

The project was funded by the Italian Government, through the PMSP – Palestinian Municipalities Support Program. The Consul General highlighted Italy's longstanding support to Palestinian capacity building and protection of cultural heritage. In this regard, he continued, this project is the latest in a series of PMSP initiatives aimed at rehabilitating Palestinian historic buildings to promote sustainable tourism.
