Press release

Germany continues to support the work of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees (UNRWA)

The German Government provides an additional contribution of 8.4 Mio Euro to the work of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees (UNRWA) in Gaza. This contribution is designated for UNRWA's food aid program and will help to provide food assistance to the Palestine Refugees in the Gaza Strip.
The newly announced funding raises Germany's total support for UNRWA's food aid program in Gaza to 16 Mio Euro in 2018.

The Acting Representative in Ramallah, Bernd Kuebart, welcomed the additional funding: "With this substantive additional money Germany continues to support UNRWA in fulfilling its mandate. The funds will help meet the urgent humanitarian needs of Palestine Refugees in Gaza who are dependent on UNRWA's support."

The German Federal Government continues to support UNRWA in the fields of humanitarian assistance, employment generation, infrastructure, reconstruction and rehabilitation.
