THE ITALIAN FOREIGN MINISTER, ENZO MOAVERO MILANESI, REGRETS ISRAEL'S DECISION ON TIPH MISSION

"We learnt about this decision with regret but we maintain our commitment". This is what the Minister of Foreign Affairs, Enzo Moavero Milanesi, said with regard to Israel's decision not to renew the mandate of the mission of TIPH (Temporary International Presence in Hebron) observers, in which Italy also takes part. "We will discuss it also with the other States involved", the Ministry added.
