CEASEFIRE DEAL REACHED AFTER 734 DAYS OF ISRAEL'S GENOCIDE IN GAZA

Last Thursday, President Mahmoud Abbas welcomed the announcement by US President Donald Trump of an agreement to end the genocide in the Gaza Strip, withdraw Israeli occupation forces (IOF), allow humanitarian aid entry, and facilitate a prisoners' exchange. President Abbas expressed hope that efforts would pave the way for a permanent political solution, leading to the end of the Israeli occupation of the State of Palestine. He reaffirmed that sovereignty over Gaza belongs to Palestine and emphasized that the connection between the West Bank and Gaza should be within the framework of a single Palestinian system and law.

AROUND 2,000 PALESTINIAN PRISONERS ARE SET TO BE RELEASED TODAY

As agreed under the ceasefire agreement, around 2,000 Palestinian prisoners will be released today. This total includes 250 prisoners, mostly serving life sentences, of whom 154 will be deported, and approximately 1,700 Gazans who have been detained since the start of Israel's genocide in October 2023. As part of the deal, Israel will reportedly return the remains of up to 360 martyred Palestinians.

GAZA PEACE SUMMIT KICK STARTS TODAY IN SHARM EL-SHEIKH, EGYPT

Co-chaired by President Abdel Fattah El-Sisi and US President Donald Trump, with leaders from more than twenty countries participating, an international summit titled "Sharm ElSheikh Summit for Peace" will be held this afternoon in Sharm El-Sheikh. The summit aims "to end the war in the Gaza Strip, enhance efforts to achieve peace and stability in the Middle East, and usher in a new era of regional security and stability."

FOR THE FOURTH DAY, PALESTINIANS RETURN TO THE RUINS OF THEIR HOMES IN GAZA AMID A MAN-MADE FAMINE AND SEVERE LACK OF SHELTER

Since Friday, hundreds of thousands of displaced Palestinian citizens have begun returning—on foot—to what remains of their homes in Gaza City and other areas in the Strip, navigating through the rubble and devastation left behind by the two-year Israeli genocide. Palestinians are walking along al-Rashid and Salah al-Din streets, many of them without homes to return to. Palestinian citizens in Gaza "continue to face starvation, malnutrition, and a manmade famine, as well as lack of shelter and supplies," UNRWA said.
